INTRODUCTION

TW: Mentions of suicide, slurs, rape, sexual themes, verbal abuse, harassment, wishes of death

I (AnonymousPumpkins) created this Doc to warn others of the toxic behaviour of Mallow, a user that refuses to leave me and my friends alone, and whose aggressive tactics are starting to become worrisome. It's gotten to the point where they're now wishing physical harm on me and my friends, as well as using slurs. If you come across this user, I strongly recommend avoiding them.

Even though this document is written from my POV, as I'm choosing not to be anonymous (the irony I know), it outlines the drama and toxicity my friends have experienced as well. Some sections have been written by CuppaCuppaCoffee.

(🐇 all comments from Cuppa will have a rabbit emoji next to it)

Note: Screenshots are listed as Discord links to avoid clutter and make it easier to view them.

DISCLAIMERS

1. This should go without saying but don't harass anyone mentioned in this document. If you come across Mallow or their partner, just block them and move on.
2. Some people have chosen to remain anonymous to avoid further drama, which is why their names are censored out. If you recognize any of them, don't message them about anything.
3. As you'll see, there's hints of humour and vulgar language in this Doc. This isn't to downplay the seriousness of Mallow' actions or make it seem like we weren't that affected. We're just really fucking tired and trying to add some positivity to this whole mess.

USERNAMES

Mallow has gone by many usernames over the years:

These are simply the ones we know of and there's likely more. I've included these usernames to avoid confusion with the screenshots, as the different usernames and profile pictures makes it difficult for bystanders to recognize Mallow. There's a reason for this, which I'll touch on later.

OLD DRAMA

Mallow has known us for years, with them first reaching out to me on DeviantArt in 2017:

Screenshot

They knew a few of my friends before they reached out to me, which is how most of us came to know each other. We talked on Skype for a little while before moving to Discord some time later.

It may seem really shitty to bring up some of the incidents I'm about to share but there's a reason for it. If Mallow truly had become a better person and healed, I would have happily deleted all of the following screenshots. Don't take this as me using someone's past mental problems as a "gotcha" or that people can't change.

CUPPA'S PAST WITH MALLOW

🐇 I would like for everyone to take a moment to take in the main root of the issues we face today and how it all stems from, frankly, very benign arguments that have no real significance. For Anon and the rest of our friends, it's been several years now. For me, it's been a decade.

🐇 We were friends back around 2013-2014, it's hard for me to say when we first met. Earliest I remember was their old username, Unknown-Heartlocket.

🐇 I never would have thought that tiffs involving roleplays (2015) , "critiquing" one of Mallow's characters (2016), and accidentally accusing Mallow of species theft (2016) would have been something Mallow would hold a deep seeded grudge over. These events are carried over in 2018, and then again in The End All (2022).

PUBLIC SERVERS

Mallow had a tendency to be very aggressive over minor things, resorting to insults if anyone did anything they didn't approve of. When called out, they'd try to claim it's simply "self care" and that they didn't care about what others thought.

That server has long been deleted and new ones created in its place. This is a recurring theme with Mallow, they create servers and then delete them whenever too much drama happens.

SUICIDE MENTIONS

Mallow also had a habit of mentioning suicide attempts and completely glossing over how severe said messages were. Multiple times they'd casually mention an attempt then act as if nothing happened.

Screenshot 1
Screenshot 2
Screenshot 3
Screenshot 4
Screenshot 5
Screenshot 6

In one instance, they sent my friend a sudden message saying they had swallowed a bunch of pills without any warning. To say she panicked was an understatement.

Screenshot

There was also the time where me and a couple friends wanted to do some silly RPs in our own group chat, which led Mallow to threatening suicide. All because we didn't include them in one little RP.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2

GROUP CHATS

Most of our interactions happened in group chats. Mallow was known to react aggressively over minor incidents, causing them to shun entire groups and view you as not a friend. One such incident was in 2017 when I suddenly left a group chat between me, Mallow and my friends.

The reason why I left was because my mental health took a steep dive that day. I was a teenager battling untreated depression and severe social anxiety, so my thoughts would often get the better of me. All I did though was leave the chat. I didn't unfriend Mallow or say anything to them, yet they became aggressive and insulted me before even seeing if I was ok.

Screenshot 2
Screenshot 3

🐇 (Reminder, in the third screen shot, Anon was 16-17 when Mallow called them an 'introverted pussy' once he left to take care of his own mental health)

Overreacting and dropping sudden vents was very normal for Mallow. Like I said, the smallest of things would set them off. In one incident, they blew up and said they were going to scrap their then persona, all because an OCT said she wasn't allowed. On its own, this incident doesn't mean much but I'm including it to show a repeating pattern of behaviour for them.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2 Screenshot 3

FIRST BLOWUP

On November 5 2018, everything came to a head when Mallow sent this exact same message to all of us before immediately blocking. Their mental state had been declining for a bit before this but instead of asking for help or explaining what's going on, they just sent us this:

Screenshot

(🐇 If you hear Mallow make mention about us 'abandoning them in their time of need', they are referring to this blow up. Anon had his saved, but Mallow sent the same copy/paste message to everyone.)

At this point we were done with their behaviour, so we took them seriously and ceased all contact. To say we were hurt was an understatement. After all the petty drama and venting they put us through, we had no desire whatsoever to reach out to them ever again.

When we refused to take them back, they went to a former friend of mine and proceeded to make NSFW remarks about her OC, play victim and then blocked when she didn't forgive Mallow for everything.

TWITTER FIASCO

🐇 After what had been nearly a year or so without hearing a single peep from Mallow, they reached out to me on their NSFW account.

Screenshot

🐇 Since everyone around this time frame had talked to Mallow (as they reached out to them on other platforms like Tumblr to apologize), I saw this as an opportunity to finally make amends and at least move forward from the past.

Screenshot 1
Screenshot 2

🐇 Our friend Purple Alien reached out to me, letting me know that Mallow had caused a stir within a well known artists' community. For the sake of their privacy, they will be named Orange.

Screenshot 4
Screenshot 5

🐇 This was intended to be my last statement on how I felt about the situation, I reiterated that this is a continued pattern I had been noticing for years when it comes to Mallow talking down to others.

Screenshot

🐇 However, when Anon sent me a cap from Mallow's twitter account, I lost my cool at that moment. It was a mistake and it was uncalled for me to unblock Mallow to shout at them, then block them again. Not only because this pushes past the bounds of being acceptable, but Mallow later down the line tries to change the reality of this situation by saying I was "stalking" them because they had no idea where my anger came from (see Sakura's portion).

🐇 Final things to note: Orange and I talked about the situation in DMs. We all have yet to see any actual evidence of the 17 year old being "creepy" towards Mallow. If it's true, I do feel bad for Mallow. Then again, I can't help but to wonder how Mallow could even get into a situation like that to begin with.

Some extra context from me, AnonymousPumpkins: I had slowly become Mallow's friend again after joining Orange's server, which they were also in. We talked once in a while, which is why me and my friends were involved. After the fallout between Orange and Mallow, I once again dropped them completely.

CONTINUING DRAMA

So why are we bringing up old stuff from as early as 2015? To show that Mallow hasn't changed. I need to make this very clear: we didn't want to bring any of this up but the rest of this Doc explains why we felt we had to.

THE END ALL

In March, 2022, Mallow's partner (who I will refer to as Brown) reached out to Purple Alien about making amends. We created a group chat called The End All, in which we allowed Mallow to fully explain themselves and offer apologies. The purpose of this chat was to have a genuine discussion about how Mallow' actions affected everyone.

During this discussion, Mallow informed us that they had DID/OSDD and that an alter named "Scarlet" was responsible for most of the previous drama that happened. Mallow claimed to have little memory of most of the events that happened because it wasn't technically them.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2 Screenshot 3

To say this was a lot to take in was an understatement. But we kept an open mind and continued talking because while mental illness doesn't excuse anything Mallow did, we were willing to bury the hatchet. Mallow also explained some of their other alters and how many of their OCs were based off of them.

Screenshot Screenshot

The old screenshots were stored in a private Dropbox, which we shared with Mallow out of good faith. We had no intentions of publicly sharing any of its contents until now because there was no reason to. Said screenshots were only for reference, which Mallow seemed happy about.

Screenshot 1
Screenshot 2
Screenshot 3
Screenshot 4

Mallow also gave us what seemed to be heartfelt apologies for all of the things they did. They also didn't lash out or fight us when we shared just how badly their actions affected us.

🐇 In my final statement, you will see Mallow enjoying the notion that I was 'scammed' during our conversation in The End All. I was not. It was a misunderstanding that Mallow took as a "gotcha" moment to one up me, but here they are pretending to care about it.

Screencap

There's a lot more that happened in this group chat but I won't be providing screenshots unless they're relevant.

Username Explanation

When asked about why they kept jumping accounts and switching usernames, this is what they had to say:

Screenshot

Whether or not this is true, we have no idea. So do with this info as you will, I simply wanted to show Mallow' explanation.

LIES, LIES AND MORE LIES

For a couple of months, me and Mallow were on good terms yet again and I even spoke with them once in a while on their server. But of course this didn't last and Mallow' true colours showed once again.

Mallow reached out to Purple Alien and admitted to lying about having DID/OSDD. They did this so we would stop "harassing/stalking" them. Basically, they didn't want to take accountability.

Screenshot 1
Screenshot 2
Screenshot 3
Screenshot 4
Screenshot 5
Screenshot 6
Screenshot 7
Screenshot 8
Screenshot 9
Screenshot 10

I need to make one thing very clear: we did not harass or stalk them in any way. They're the one who kept block evading, sending nasty messages and ignoring our boundaries.

🐇 (To add even more insult to injury, Mallow kept up the facade of having DID/OSDD for a little while, as seen here and here, when they ask about how to download the dropbox files, before Mallow ever told PA about their lies.)

When these screenshots were shared with the rest of us, we all blocked Mallow and Brown with no warning. Lying about such a serious mental illness to avoid taking responsibility, then calling it a "white lie," is beyond disgusting. Shit talking Broken/Cupps yet again was just the final push for us to be done with them.

How did Mallow handle this? By of course sending this horrible message to a couple of people Toyhouse (Purple Alien and XBox specifically). But they sure have changed for the better, guys.

SAKURA

🐇 Taking things back to the Twitter fiasco, this is where Sakura reached out to talk to me. They saw Mallow venting and wanted to know if they could have my side of the story.

🐇 Afterwards, she talked about Mallow coaxing her to take part in an ERP (marked with ❗) involving subject matter like rape when Sakura was 16. The other was Mallow getting possessive over Sakura's character whenever they were friends with another user we will call Scissors.

🐇 March, 2023, is when things really started to spiral out of control with Mallow. Despite Sakura setting crystal clear boundaries, Mallow reached out using an alt account via Discord, and then on Toyhouse.

The reason why we dropped Brown is because she can't be trusted and is most likely the one who shared Sakura's Discord tag. Not only that, but every time we've tried bringing up how badly Mallow has treated us, she just brushes it off. We're not going to let Mallow use Brown to contact us anymore.

WOE IS ME

Mallow loves to go on and on about how they're not popular and always invisible to others. Never mind the fact that they hardly ever take a genuine interest in other people's characters, art, ect. They just expect everyone to talk to them and be their friend. And if they don't get the attention they want, they make everyone in public servers uncomfortable with their sudden pity parties.

ENTERVOID

Not Understanding Normal Boundaries

In March, 2023, I joined a public server called EnterVOID. VOID is similar to an Original Character Tournament (OCT), in which people “battle” each other by drawing comics. Unbeknownst to me, Mallow was already a member of this server long before I joined.

This is an interesting message I found in VOID of Mallow expressing confusion over people not wanting to interact with them because of their age. Yes, Discord is for anyone 13 and up. But minors not wanting to interact with adults and vice versa is a completely understandable boundary that shouldn’t need explaining.

Screenshot 2

🐇 (Although it’s weird that in screenshot 2, Mallow expresses they don’t like interacting with teens anyways)

Vague Apology

Mallow posted a very vague “apology” in an OCT server but didn’t specify who they were apologizing to or what they were apologizing for. They then copy and pasted the same useless apology in VOID (likely in hopes that I would see).

First apology message
Second apology in VOID

Public Meltdown

Despite our previous issues, I decided to stay in the server. With Mallow blocked, it wasn’t hard at all to ignore them and not interact in any way. For about a month things were fine, with us keeping our distance and talking to the other members like normal. This is Mallow though, so of course they had another public meltdown out of nowhere.

They left right after, although it's unknown if the mods banned them or if they left on their own.

THREATS OF HARM

After Mallow' meltdown, they then went to Pinterest and sent me these messages.

Pinterest 1 Pinterest 2 Pinterest 3

Keep in mind that the worst I did was block and not interact with them. Apparently that warrants wishing physical harm on me and calling me slurs. The funny thing is, Mallow knows I'm neurodivergent too (ADHD).

That's not all. When I replied with "lmao you cannot seriously be this manipulative and stupid" before blocking, they sent me even more threats of bodily harm on Instagram.

Screenshot

Was I petty for sending them that kind of response on Pinterest? Absolutely. But wishing death on me and my friends and calling me slurs for just blocking them is beyond disgusting.

SERVER MISMANAGEMENT

An anonymous source has informed us that Mallow is very passive-aggressive and toxic when it comes to managing their own servers.

Another user, who we'll refer to as Pancake, informed us of an incident involving Mallow as a moderator. They paid a user named "Mommy" $60 to advertise this small, art centred server and attract more members. It backfired though because Mommy advertised on Omeagle, causing a large influx of NSFW accounts to flood the server.

Pancake's statement and screenshots

🐇As a member of Mallow' 2023 server for only a little bit, my wife caught a glimpse of how bad the influx of server members must have been. As here, here and here displays a constant surge of people joining then leaving Mallow' server.

IDOL WORSHIP/OBSESSION

🐇 As long as we have known Mallow, they have had a bizarre love/hate relationship with people they deem to be “popular”. Either by follower counts, characters or artistic talents/achievements. With Orange clearly being the most obvious case. However, a few people have already come forward and shared some screenshots of Mallow ‘boasting’ about a very well known user on an art trade Discord server. Aka, our other friend who’s a victim of Mallow’ actions.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2 Screenshot 3

🐇 Violating their boundaries, Mallow had also sent Dark Blue NSFW Transformers porn without their consent, assuming that since this user also drew porn, they would be okay with it. Dark Blue has stated that they’re not even friends with Mallow, let alone close enough for this behavior to be okay.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2

🐇 Going as far as to refer to them as “cutie”, unprompted.

Screenshot

Here’s them calling someone hot while being in a relationship with someone else.

Screenshot

🐇 The other parties involved are going to be called Walker.

🐇 Walker’s full story was shared to me in private once my first callout post was made. Within our conversations, I was given a great mountain of evidence they have collected over the years, corroborating a lot of assumptions I had about Mallow and how they act around other people’s OCs.

🐇 Described by Walker were details of their experiences with Mallow in different OCT’s and in private, and how despite them and their Oc’s not having much interactions Mallow exhibited behavior that saw things as more - and became incredibly infatuated with Walker. Putting them up on a pedestal compared to other artists, pining for their attention, but more importantly, wanting more from Walker about their OC and art to an obsessive and uncomfortable worshipping degree.

🐇 Walker’s friends often experienced being shafted off to the side as Mallow would disregard or skim over them due to their sole focus being on Walker or Walker’s OC. Even when it wasn’t related, Mallow would make things about what they wanted or bring things up unprompted.

🐇 Despite their short interaction, Mallow attempted to coax Walker into doing more with them, such as OCTs, or at the very least, conversations to share more on the specific character Mallow was obsessed over and to see more art from Walker.

🐇 There's plenty more to say about Walker's experiences with Mallow, with them being an example of how two faced Mallow was, however, that is their story to tell. If they ever feel comfortable enough to share that story. For now, I hope you all can take my word for it.

🐇 Walker's friend during this whole situation is similar to what my wife had to go through. She always felt like the third wheel, non-existent until Mallow went to her to have discussions and fantasize about my character- through her, directed towards me.

Screenshot 1 Screenshot 2 Screenshot 3

DENIAL

🐇 It comes as no shock that when some users came forward with their testimonies, a few of them managed to share some screencaps from Mallow' carrd and their Toyhouse biography about themself.

🐇 They think that I am someone who conjured up this whole mess, nothing seen here is actually a 'big deal'. It's all people being too 'sensitive' over nothing. A conspiracy against them. Well, it isn't. Mallow has hurt so many people, from different servers, on different social media platforms.

Screencap 1 Screencap 2 Edited Discord Screencap 3 Edited Carrd

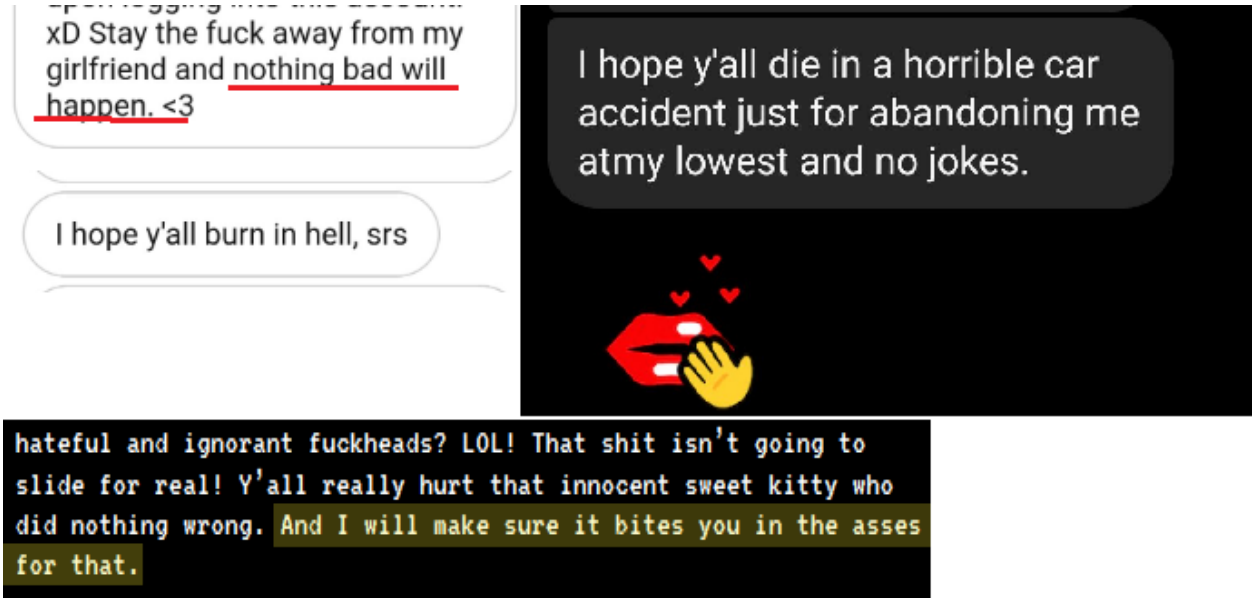
They love saying that grudges help nobody and to just "move on," yet they're allowed to have grudges and drag up stuff from years ago. Maybe take your own fucking advice Mallow. We wouldn't be in this situation if you did.

Screenshot

🐇 Let alone,we aren't going to be taking your threats lightly.Whether you are being hyperbolic, or you are being serious, it does not matter. I want everyone to take a good hard look at this image, at this Doc, and I hope that wherever you go, people reconsider letting you into their spaces. For this is the result of years worth of abuse from you, all because we at one point made the mistake of making you our friend.

🐇 Nothing can give us back the time we've wasted on you but I can only hope that moving forward, others can be warned about who they are dealing with and tread safely.

🐇 This is a mess you have caused, all by your own hands. You are the reason why you are miserable, and we know you won't or refuse to change.



xD Stay the fuck away from my girlfriend and nothing bad will happen. <3
I hope y'all burn in hell, srs
I hope y'all die in a horrible car accident just for abandoning me atmy lowest and no jokes.
hateful and ignorant fuckheads? LOL! That shit isn't going to slide for real! Y'all really hurt that innocent sweet kitty who did nothing wrong. And I will make sure it bites you in the asses for that.

FINAL WORDS

These are more like final messages to Mallow from some of us. There won't be many screenshots as evidence, mostly written accounts of how all of this has affected us and our personal feelings. Mallow truly was (🐇 and continues to be) a horrible person to all of us over the years.

END NOTES

As I pointed out in the beginning, the purpose of this Doc is to serve as a warning for anyone who might come across Mallow because they're a genuine danger to everyone's wellbeing. No matter how many times they claim to have changed, they always revert back to the same toxic behaviours. No one wanted this but since nothing else has worked, this is the only other option we have.

One of Mallow' favourite ways to deflect criticism is to say that they're "not who they used to be" and "just trying to move on." Both of these statements are complete lies. They love to tell others to just forget and mind their own business, yet make that impossible by block evading, begging for forgiveness, etc.

🐇 Keep in mind that if you see them out in the wild (since they switch accounts and usernames frequently), they have very unique looking style and species names to take note of, especially if you participate in art-centered hobbies/activities.
